4. Historical Significance (Chain of Title, Families and Events, etc., connected with the property)
5. Architectural Significance (Note interesting interior and exterior details, etc., cite significant alterations and additions) Although this small and simple house has been partially altered by the rebuilding of one of its chimney stacks and the replacement of much of the original sash, it still preserves much of its original character. Built on a hall-parlor plan this house retains several early 6 panel doors, some original sash (most notably to the right of the entrance door) and beaded weatherboard. The simplicity of the plan and detailing as well as the survival of several early features heighten the significance of this otherwise unnoticed building.
